AGED WOMAN CONFESSES 'SHINING'

Unusual Case Comes To Light
In Trial In Federal Court
Wednesday.

Judge Cochran cleared up a lot of small moonshining and bootlegging cases in federal court on Wednesday. Indications were that most of the cases against the "big fellows" charged with robbing distilleries, etc., would go over to Lexington for trial, and in this way the docket here might be finished sooner than expected.

The appearance of a 76-year-old woman as a witness in the trial of Fred Goetz, of Lincoln county as a witness, and confessing that in her younger days she had made moonshine liquor, was one of the features of the day. Officers testified that both Goetz and the woman, Mrs. Marsee, went to Deputy Sheriff Monroe Thompson, of Waynesburg, and threatened him that "They'll get you when the leaves come out." Mrs. Marsee sought to take the responsibility for seven jars of whisky and part of a still being found on Goetz' place. She said she bought the liquor for $25 from a man who was going away and has since died, she declared. Part of a worm was found in a cow barn and another part of a still in a horse barn, and a piece of pipe in the woman's bed. She argued at length that Goetz knew nothing of the parts of the still or liquor and that she alone was responsible. Officers gave both the woman and her son who testified for Goetz' bad reputations.

Deputy Sheriff Monroe Thompson told how the old woman had come to him and threatened that "They were going to get him when the leaves come out." Thompson is known as one of the most fearless officers in that part of the state. He lives in a section which is alleged to be a veritable hotbed of moon shining, and his life has been threatened a number of times. However, he "goes after law violators fearlessly and is making a great reputation. The jury found Goetz guilty. There are charges against Mrs. Marsee for which Judge Cochran has under consideration.

The Lincoln county contingent is largely represented at this term of federal court. J. J. Falconberry, in the southern section of Lincoln, tried to convince a jury that a still found running just over his fence, wasn't his, and he knew nothing of it. But Sheriff George Delore, of Lincoln, told how he saw Falconberry run a corn patch when the officer got near, and the jury convicted him too. A. H. Feldman, also of Lincoln entered a plea of guilty.

Mack Montgomery, near R. House, who was acquitted in circuit court here when a still was found in his house, after he had been away a week, was also cleared in federal court. Witnesses said a man named Ashcraft admitted he had found it and placed it there. Montgomery was represented by Attorney C. Murray Smith.

Goebel Peyton, of Richmond, was acquitted of a charge of selling whisky to Ed Fogle. Witnesses said Fogle had whisky when he entered the place where Peyton was working. Peyton pled guilty to another count of possessing liquor. Peyton was defended in the trial he won by Attorney George Ross of Richmond.

Leonard Dunn, of Owensley county, who said that he went to Estill to visit his grand father and was arrested at a still, where he went to see a man about a cow, was acquitted of a charge of moonshining.

Eva Bicknell, of Richmond, entered a plea of guilty to charges of possessing, selling and transporting liquor.

Jones and James Simpson were found guilty of possessing, selling and transporting.

Attorney King Swope, secured an order for the return of an automobile belonging to V. F. Dinsler, of Lexington, which was found on a street there with 25 gallons of moonshine in it. Dinsler had reported theft of the machine to the police.

In the case of August Brender, Attorney C. C. Bagby, of Danville, brought up the question of convictions in both state and federal court for the same offense. Judge Cochran said that lower courts had sustained the concurrent jurisdiction of these courts and the matter is now before the U. S. Supreme Court.

The only criminal case yet tried during this term of court not concerned with violation of the liquor laws was that of John R. Jackson, a colored youth, who pled guilty to taking a letter from the mails belonging to another and opening it. The letter was directed to Patsy Jackson at Frankfort, it was said. There were extenuating circumstances, District Attorney Smith said, so the boy was let off with a $50.00 fine.

George Roach of Estill county, was found guilty of possessing liquor at his home in Estill county after he had been acquitted in the circuit court at home. He conducted his own defense with much spirit.

Wiley Richardson was found not guilty of violating the prohibition law.

MOST OF BIG CASES TRANSFERRED

Few of the big whisky cases will be tried here at this term of federal court, after all. The Ike Miller, Louis Kay, W. J. Wilson cases have been transferred to Lexington for trial. The former indictment was quashed, and the present grand jury brought in a new indictment late Wednesday. The new indictment contains 52 counts against the accused. The offense of which they are alleged to be guilty was securing through fraudulent permits of 500 cases of whisky from the Frankfort distillery at Frankfort.

The Clark, Barnes, Peters, and Bixler cases from Frankfort, where the defendants are alleged to have stolen about 14 barrels of whisky from the Old Judge distillery have also been transferred to Frankfort, and the Sam Freeman case went back to Covington. This disposes of most of the real big whisky cases, but there are enough minor violations of the prohibition laws to keep the court over several days next week. Clerk John W. Menzies thinks.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite
Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

What Every Expectant Mother Should Know--

Mrs. Laura Hendrix, Gracemont, Okla., says: "I want to express my appreciation of 'Mother's Friend.' I am the mother of six children, expecting another one soon. I have used 'Mother's Friend' with every one of my babies. I think it is the greatest help that has ever been discovered for the expectant mother. I can't do without it. I recommend it to all expectant mothers. I can't say too much for it."

"Mother's Friend" was originated by an eminent physician. It has saved thousands of expectant mothers from useless suffering. It is externally applied; aids the muscles and tissues to relax easily and resists themselves to the changes during pregnancy and up to the moment baby arrives.

"Mother's Friend" is safe and beneficial, and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. Avoid mere greases and useless substitutes.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Benedict Co., 234-4, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores everywhere.

which Mrs. Shanks spoke of the new plans for the Federated Clubs. Then Mrs. M. C. Kellogg and Mrs. Waller Bennett gave reasons for organizing a club in Richmond. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. McAllister were guests from Berea and they told of the work of their club. The following officers were then elected:

Pres. Mrs. Hale Dean; 1st vice president Mrs. Edgar Turley; 2d vice president Miss Lucia Burman; 3d vice president Mrs. James W. Caperton; Secretary Mrs. John Arnold; Treasurer Mrs. Carlo Brittain; Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Sallie Yates McKee; Press Reporter Miss Josephine Covington.

The organization of the club will start immediately and there is certainly no doubt but that Richmond will stand back of these competent officers and also back of that splendid group of 40 women who have already given their names to the secretary to line up in this noble work for the upbuilding of the community. Everyone is cordially invited to become a member and all those who would like to join are asked to give their names to Mrs. John Arnold.

The first regular meeting of the club will be held in January. Richmond is indeed very grateful to Mrs. Shanks for her untiring interest in this great organization.

Mr. John Hogan, of Jellico, Tennessee, is with Eugene Miller for a week's hunt.

Mrs. John Yerkes and Mrs. Laura Wiggins, of Paris, are guests of Mrs. Overton Harber in Burnamwood.

Mrs. S. N. Moberly was called to Gray's Knob Wednesday by the illness of her father, Mr. Forester, who has typhoid fever.

Mrs. B. F. Hurst and daughter, Mary Patterson, were Lexington visitors Tuesday.

Tom Adams and V. L. Tuttle, of Jessamine county, were in Richmond on a business trip the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sowers will leave soon to make their home in Nicholasville.

JOHN R. GIBSON'S ADMINISTRATOR, Plaintiff,

JOHN R. GIBSON'S DEVISEES AND CREDITORS, Defendants.

Pursuant to a judgment and order of court in the above entitled action, the undersigned commissioner of the Madison Circuit Court will on Wednesday, November 29, 1922, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M., at the mansion house on the premises hereinafter described, will offer for sale the landed estate of the late John R. Gibson, known as "Ellendale," and more particularly described as follows:

This tract of land contains 176.63 acres and has been sub-divided by a civil engineer into four tracts, as shown from the blue print filed with the papers in this action.

TRACT NO. 1—Contains 65.26 acres and on which is located the mansion house and outbuildings. This tract of land fronts the Lancaster Pike, adjacent to the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School and the mansion house and barn are watered from the water works of the City of Richmond, Ky., and lighted from the city lights.

TRACT NO. 2—Contains 34.99 acres and lies east of the property of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School and is reached by a forty foot roadway leading from the Lancaster Pike in an easterly direction along the south edge of the property of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, as shown from the blue print above mentioned.

TRACT NO. 3—Contains 35.48 acres and lies just east of Tract No. 2, and is reached by the same roadway as is tract No. 2.

TRACT NO. 4—Contains 38.89 acres and lies just east of Tract No. 1, and south of Tract No. 3. This tract is also reached by the same roadway mentioned above.

The commissioner will first sell Tract No. 1, then tract No. 2, then Tract No. 3, then Tract No. 4 or enough of one or more of said tracts to bring the sum of $54,000.00. After selling said tracts of land separately the commissioner will then offer the same as a whole and accept the bid or bids bringing the most money.

This property is in a high state of cultivation and is as well or better located than any other property near the City of Richmond, Kentucky, that will be offered for sale in the next fifty years. For homes, and for people who wish to live in and near the Normal School or the Madison High School this property cannot be excelled. It is adjacent to the city limits of the City of Richmond, Kentucky, with all advantages enjoyed by the residents of the city and without the burdens of taxation borne by residents of the city and fronts the busiest and most up-to-date thoroughfare in the city of Richmond. The residence and outbuildings on Tract No. 1 consists of an eleven-roomed, brick colonial homestead with all modern conveniences and in perfect repair, costing over $40,000 and two tobacco barns, tenant house, garage, scales and stock barns and other outbuildings, vineyard and orchard. This property is now ready to be cultivated or put to any use the buyer may see fit. Persons desiring to see the subdivisions can see the same at my office or in the office of the circuit clerk.

TERMS—This property will be sold on a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, the purchaser or purchasers being required to execute bonds for the purchase money, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent from date of sale until paid, payable to the commissioner. Possession of said property will follow confirmation of the sale, except the residence property and possession of that will be given when the terms of the sale are complied with.
